Time: 5:30 social 6:00 dinner gong

Bring a dish to share for eight and your own set up including beverages.

From Cindy Weigelt on the 27 May 2024 Paradise Park Open Forum:

I learned something from Candidates Night...it seems that those 14 members who have been accused of "suing PPMC," NEVER DID! They sued 3 members of the Board, personally, to require them to count and announce the results of the recall election.

PPMC was only later pulled into the lawsuit, by our former attorney and those same 3 Directors, so they could vote to have their legal fees paid, using Park funds. 🤔

Our insurance wouldn't even cover their blatant disregard for our by-laws. It was

NEVER about money, but it sure cost us

Participate in the PPMC Centennial Celebration, July 27!
Join us for fun Play/Sing-alongs!

Early PPMC members would meet for social gatherings of singing and dancing. They called themselves The Terpsichore, in reference to the Greek Muse of choral singing and dance.

We are practicing songs from the 1920's, including: Five Foot Two, Sweet Georgia Brown, Wreck of the Old 97, Frankie and Johnny, Nobody Knows You When You're Down and Out, Mack the Knife, and Keep on the Sunny Side. We're also playing other popular songs, including: Under the Boardwalk, This Land is Your Land, Paradise, and Wagon Wheel.

We will perform at the 2024 PPMC Centennial Celebration!

To join the Terpsichore Club, contact Walter Allen: 831.588.2507 or walterrichardallen@gmail.com

We will let you know when we are getting together!

Since light travels faster than sound, some people appear bright until you hear them speak.

Coffee and donuts

War does not determine who is right, only who is left.

Tuesday Coffee meets every Monday at 0930. Come for awhile, stay or leave when you like. Bring your own beverage but goodies will be provided.

Whatever troubles Adam had,
No man in days of yore,
Could say, when Adam cracked a joke
I've heard that one before!
